deman, a member of the firm of Kelly & Carter, Commission Merchants, Alexandria, was drown-Commission Merchants, Alexandria, was drowned on Thursday last, in crossing Sycolin creek, about three miles from Leesburg, where that stream crosses the Leesburg and Aldie Turnpike, near the residence of Mr. Chas. Powell. The stream had been greatly swellen by the heavy rains. Mr. Carter and his brother, Marshall Carter, left the Reamer House, Leesburg, immediately after the rain on Thursday, for the home of the latter, in Aldie. When they arrived at the stream Mr. Wm. E. Carter remarked that he thought it would be dangerous to attempt to cross, but they concluded there would be no danger, and the attempt was made. The horse and buggy were soon under water, fleating down. In massing under a log used by footmen to cross the stream the unfortunate man was by some means thrown from the buggy, but was to cross the stream the unfortunate man was by some means thrown from the buggy, but was some clinging to the body of it. In that condition they floated some distance down the stream, when the bursey struck an obstruction, which when the bursey struck an obstruction, which means the bank that he got a foothold, and by extra efforts overcame the force of the current and saved his life. As the buggy was turned over Mr. Wm. E. Carter lost his hold, and was carried down the stream and drowned. His body was found about a quarter of a mile balow lodged. was found about a quarter of a mile below lodged against a few panels of fence that had withstood the current, and was carried to the residence of Mr. Chas. Henderson. The horse and buggy were saved. Mr. C. was a popular and highly esteemed merchant of Alexandria. He was born and raised in the neighborhood of Aldie. He CAPITATION TAX BEFORE VOTING, -- Attorney General Fields, in response to questions propounded to him by a gentleman in Lees burg, has given the opinion that a young man who has become of age since the assessment of the capitation tax of the year previous to the election at which he offers to vote, is entitled to vote without paying the capitation tax. The capitation tax required to be paid before a man can vote is assessed on those who are twentyone years of age, for the year before the election, and as the constitution designs to disfranchise no one who complies with its provisions, it does not prevent a man from voting who could not be assessed from the time of coming of age to the election-hence, those who come of age after the assessment of the year before he offers to vote can vote without being assessed. He also decides that citizens of the State, who were out of the State when the assessment was made, and were not assessed, must pay the capitation tax before voting, as it was their duty to be assessed and pay the tax, when they return to the State, before offering to vote. - Leesburg Washingtonian.

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY POLITICS. - The nominations made by the republicans of Prince George's county, Maryland, last week, gave great dissatisfaction, and some members of the party nominated another ticket as follows: For Scuator, S. Taylor Suit; for House of Delegates, Rufus Belt, John D. Latchford, Pleasanton Coombs; for County Commissioners, Alvin M. Bond, Lewis Magruder, Horace Crozier, Richard H. Grimes, Wm. W. Sansbury; for Regis ter of Wills, James Flint; for Sheriff, J. W. W. Wilson; for Surveyor, George W. Jackson, Mr. B. Lee Belt, who was recently nominated for the House of Delegates by the democrats of the same county, declines the nomination. THE REMAINS OF COLUMBUS, -- Prior to 1795 they were deposited in an ell cathodral in St. Domingo city, but in that year, by the terms of a treaty between France and Spain, what were supposed to be the remains were transferred with great pomp to Havans. The news is new sent from St. Domingo that Spain was chested at the time, the dust of the son of Columbus or of some other member of his family having been sent her instead of these of the great discoverer. In St. Domingo city the old tomb was opened a short time ago in the presence of the civil and occlesiastical authorities. It contained the casket which, it is assorted, contains the coveted relies. BOTHOW TO GET AN APPETITE. - To a man or woman without an appetite "the best the market affords" presents little or no attractions. The sooner such a hapless individual puts the gastric organ in a condition to enjoy the edible comforts which a bountiful providence has proyided, the more reason there will be to feel grateful for the suggestion. To do this, invigo-rate the stomach with Hostetter's Stemach Bittors, which will enable that organ to digest properly, and, since good digortion is the parent of appetite, give birth to a desire for food at the intervals appointed by nature. With ch-onic want of appetite are usually associated nervousness, biliousness and constipation, three evils which are speedily overcome by the Bitters.

All persons of a dyspeptic or bilious tendency should use this healthful tenic daily, or at least three or four times a week. A pursuance of this course will soon insure and confirm a radical change for the better in the condition of the
